

TOP U.S. POSTAL SERVICE SUPPLIERS FOR FISCAL YEAR 2023

Compiled by David P. Hendel

This list of the top U.S. Postal Service (USPS) suppliers was compiled from data received through a Freedom of Information Act request and covers payments and debits in FY 2023 (October 1, 2022 - September 30, 2023). As in past years, we do not include purchases made via credit cards (U.S. Bank and Voyager card fuel purchases). Separate fuel payments that could be traced to particular contractors were added to that contractor's total. When companies are believed to be affiliated or under common ownership, we often consolidate their separate entries and list the company with the highest individual ranking or best-known name. Our consolidations vary from year to year, and this may affect yearly numerical rankings. City/state designations are from USPS's payment records and may not be the contractor's primary location. The information on this list has not been audited and thus may not be entirely accurate. Please contact David Hendel if you have questions or know of discrepancies. A separate alphabetical listing appears on page 3 for ease of finding a particular contractor.

David P. Hendel

David's legal career began as an Honors Attorney in the U.S. Postal Service General Counsel's office where he reviewed contracts, advised procurement officials, and litigated disputes. Entering private practice, he advised companies on issues arising under civilian and defense agency contracts, including matters of contract administration, performance, and compliance. David has represented hundreds of contractors, from Fortune 50 companies to small businesses, on a wide range of matters including: bid protests, contract administration and interpretations, claim preparation and litigation, terminations, fraud investigations and False Claims Act matters. He frequently writes articles and presents seminars on postal contracting topics. He also created the www.postalcontractor.com website.

About Culhane

Proudly shaking up the legal marketplace since 2013, Culhane is a new type of law firm. Using technology, advanced cybersecurity, and a team-based approach, our attorneys have access to everything they need without the expense of a centralized, common physical location. By eschewing large law firm overhead, our reduced cost structure allows us to provide cost-efficient legal services. And the best part is that all our attorneys are partners who have joined us from large firms or highly regarded in-house legal departments.

With nearly 70 attorneys located in 12 major business markets around the country, we provide practical solutions to startups, Fortune 100 companies, multinational corporations, non-profits, and regional, medium, and small businesses. Our practice areas include corporate and business law, employment and labor law, outsourced general counsel, intellectual property, tax, and many other subject areas. For more information, visit our website: www.culhane.law.
